Dear Parent/Carer/Pupil,

World Book Day

Thursday, March 4th 2021 celebrates and recognises World Book Day, and at Ellis Guilford we want to provide all our pupils, both Key Stage 3 and 4, to participate in some of the activities we will be sharing with you this week.

World Book Day is a day of reading for pleasure and it's a day where our young people can both enjoy reading, whilst completing a range of work which can be submitted.

Ellis Guilford School is a member of the Creative Education Trust family of schools and the Trust also wants to share the work of our talented pupils. Some of our pupils have the chance of their illustrated articles being published in the Trust's next Knowledge Connected magazine. Work submitted on the day will also be shared on a range of social media feeds, Facebook, Instagram, YouTube and Twitter. Permission to publish work will be requested.

This is a fantastic opportunity for you to be involved in a school and Trust wide event and we look forward to seeing your illustrations and reading your stories and other pieces of writing.

I would really encourage you to be involved. We have great pupils who read avidly and are creative. Even if you don't, please look through the activities and have a go!

If you take part in World Book Day and submit your work, you are not required to complete any other Remote Learning lessons on Thursday, March 4th 2021.

Thanks, and good luck!

Mr Chris Keen
Principal
